ABOUT THE ARCHIVES BAZAAR

For more than 20 years, the L.A. AS SUBJECT consortium has brought to life the diverse, often hidden stories that make Southern California such a fascinating place of discovery. In 2005, we inaugurated the Los Angeles ARCHIVES BAZAAR to give anyone with an interest in the region's history a one-stop opportunity to interact with dozens of archives, from large institutions to private collectors. In all, more than 80 archives are represented at this event, which is free and open to the public.

In addition to archives and institutions in the exhibitor halls, the bazaar will feature workshops on audio formats, home movies, and the conservation of family photographs and scrapbooks as well as a range of discussions with experts—on L.A. as the capital of film noir, the Central Library, the centennial of the suffrage movement, religious subcultures in Southern California, and more!

These images appear in Season 4 of Lost L.A., a coproduction between KCET and the USC Libraries. The Emmy Award-winning show explores the past through the region's archives, where photos, documents, and other rare artifacts unlock the untold history behind the fantasy of Southern California.
